INTRODUCTION

Hi there - nice to meet you!

We're Leja (27) and Luka (29) from Croatia (currently living in the USA) and we are the joint authors of this exciting eBook, alongside our blog - Spices of Lust. We also just happen to be in a wonderful relationship with each other!

First of all, we'd like to say a huge thank you for buying our eBook. We really hope you enjoy it and can gain some new ideas to help you spice up your sex life and learn to embrace your sexuality and innermost desires.

Where did the idea for the eBook of Kinky Sex Ideas come from?

This whole venture stemmed from a simple wish to improve our own relationship, intimacy and sex life. As we moved through our own journey and research, we noticed that much of the information we encountered was inconclusive and/or a little overwhelming.

We assumed there must be others out there who felt the same way, and with that our blog and the idea for this eBook were both born! We hope that in sharing our journey and the lessons we have learnt we will be able to help, educate and inform others in a similar position.

Our mission

Put simply, we want to provide you with tips and ideas on how to explore your body, emotions and sexuality. All of the ideas we will cover have been tried and tested by us and have brought about positive changes in our lives and relationship.

We believe strongly in sex-positivity; there is a lot of power in developing positive attitudes towards sex and our own sexual identities, and we are here to promote open and frank discussion. Education is the most important tool of them all, and we want to arm you with all the vital information you need before embarking on your journey of sexual exploration.

Our main aim is to encourage you to learn to understand your own and your partner's bodies and all of the physical, emotional and psychological aspects of intimacy. This will help you to gradually develop a more fulfilling sexual experience and a stronger bond with your partner.

We believe that sex should not be a taboo subject, and will always promote open debate and conversations. We want you to feel uplifted and empowered enough to speak about sex and sexuality without any feelings of shame or awkwardness! We also encourage you to accept the sexual preferences of others that may differ from your own.

For example, some of you guys may enjoy having multiple partners, swapping partners or participating in threesomes, and others may not be into it. Either way is absolutely fine, and we urge you to keep an open mind! And of course, we all have varied and unique sexual orientations. We will always encourage our readers to be accepting and understanding of practices and preferences that differ from their own.

Who is this eBook for?

Although the eBook and all of the ideas within are created by us (a heterosexual couple), we absolutely welcome everybody to try them out and join us in our journey! Our ideas are versatile and the majority can be enjoyed by people of all genders and sexual orientations.

This eBook will cover a range of sex and relationship ideas of the kinkier variety, including date ideas, kinky sex ideas, prompts for roleplay scenarios and bondage ideas. Of course, we will also be highlighting important fundamentals such as consent, safety and aftercare.

So, sit back, relax, and let us guide you through everything we have learnt through our own experiences. We truly hope we can help you reboot your sex life and enjoy intimacy like never before!

Lots of love,

Leja & Luka

CONSENT

No matter what you're into and whether you like "vanilla" or "kinky" sex, consent is always absolutely vital. In fact, it is the most important thing to establish before even thinking about anything else.

Consent should be given enthusiastically

Consent ensures that neither partner feels pressured or forced into doing something they are uncomfortable with. To be valid, consent must be given freely and enthusiastically. Nobody should feel guilted into consenting or like they have no choice but to agree. Your partner "not saying no" is not sufficient, and someone who is under the influence of alcohol or drugs cannot give consent to sexual activities either.

When should I ask for consent?

Always! There are a few common myths surrounding consent, for example some people assume that if you are in a relationship with the person you're going to have sex with then you do not need to obtain verbal consent. This is completely untrue; even if you are in a long-term relationship with a person, consent is never 'implied' and must still be explicitly given.

Consent as foreplay...

Obtaining verbal consent may seem like a "mood killer", but it needn't be this way - consent can be sexy! After all, what's more exciting than having your partner ask you if you want them?

Here are a few other ideas on how to slip consent into your conversation in the sexiest way possible:

- “Can I kiss you?”
- “Can I help you get out of those clothes?”
- “Do you want me inside you/to go down on you?”
- “Are you ready for me to do (xyz)?”

Slipping phrases like this into dirty talk can help ensure you have enthusiastic consent for each individual activity. What’s more, talking like this is bound to drive your partner absolutely wild – a win-win situation for everyone involved!

Consent is the foundation that everything else must be built on, and of course, the ideas presented in this eBook are for consenting partners only.

SAFETY

Aside from consent, safety is another incredibly important element of sex, especially when you're trying out things you've never experienced before! Pop culture often portrays the idea that rougher sex should be 'dangerous' or bordering on non-consensual, but this is absolutely not the case. Every effort should be made to ensure the ideas presented in this eBook are performed as safely as possible, and that each party is able to stop the session at any time.

Push boundaries sensibly

It's true that BDSM is sometimes about pushing boundaries, but this should only ever be done in a way that both partners find enjoyable, and any discomfort should be tolerable and pre-arranged limits should be respected.

Some of the most important safety precautions when trying out BDSM or any other activity that's new to you actually occur before play even begins. If you're totally new to a particular activity, make sure to research beforehand – do not dive straight in at the deep end with no knowledge or idea of what to expect.

Communicate, communicate, communicate

Another key element of safety when trying out something new is communication. Prior to entering any sort of unfamiliar situation, it's important to have a conversation on boundaries and safety measures, so that everyone is properly prepared.

For example, it's advisable to establish a set of safewords; these can be used to tell the other party to stop or slow things down a little.

A popular safeword strategy is the traffic-light system, where:

- “green” = keep going
- “yellow” = I'm close to my limit
- “red” = stop

It's vitally important to have a system in place that is easily practiced. Also, if either partner is going to be gagged or unable to speak for any other reason, you must set out a gesture that will substitute your safewords.

If you're new to some of the sex toys or kinks in this eBook, take it slowly and work up to the bigger things together. This is a completely new dynamic for you and your partner, and it's important not to rush into anything too soon.

Whilst experimenting with the ideas in this eBook, try to make sure you are as comfortable as possible at all times. Position yourself so you are safe, secure and able to take as much pleasure as you can from the situation. Check-in regularly with your partner throughout the session. There are rare situations where a person may be too overwhelmed to use a safeword (for example if they are in subspace), which is why it's important to both actively check up on your partner and to know what mannerisms may suggest they are nearing their limits but unable to say so.

Navigating rope play

We will also be exploring rope play and the use of restraints, which comes with a whole safety guidebook of its own. Rope play can be risky if you're unprepared, so it's important to educate yourself properly before engaging in this kind of activity.

The most important thing to remember in this situation (aside from safewords) is to avoid the 'no-rope zones' at all costs. Take a look at and familiarise yourself with these using the infographic below.

To sum up, safety is really all about research, communication, comfort and general sensibility. It doesn't have to be complicated. Ensure you cover these fundamentals and you're already halfway there:

- Prior communication / research
- Safewords / gestures
- Assume a comfortable position
- Check-in with your partner during play

AFTERCARE

Responsibility for your own and each other's well being doesn't end as soon as play does. Trying out something new sexually can be intense and even emotionally or physically draining. Aftercare is vital to ensure everyone involved feels positive, uplifted and healthy.

The chemical come-down

If you have been trying out a dominant / submissive dynamic, aftercare is often useful for the submissive, who may experience sub-drop. During submission, some people experience a rush of neurotransmitter substances which leads to a euphoric high known as subspace. Sub-drop is, in a sense, a 'come-down' from this. Though it's more common in submissives, Doms can also experience drop after a scene, so it is important to consider them, too.

Creating an aftercare kit

Aftercare is a very personal experience and what helps one person may not help another, so as with everything else, it's important to figure out what works best for you. It may be useful to create an 'aftercare kit' you can access with ease if you notice you're struggling. Some popular aftercare kit items include:

- First-aid supplies such as band-aids or lotion (attending to any wounds or bruises is an extremely important aspect of aftercare)
- Something comfortable to wear
- Something soft to hold
- A playlist of your favourite songs
- A scented candle or incense

A great aftercare kit will soothe all five senses, which may be feeling a little overwhelmed. Following an intense sexual experience, some people have complicated feelings of shame, guilt or worthlessness. If this is an issue for you, it's important to talk to your partner. In fact, talking to your partner after sex can be helpful in any case; cuddling or sitting together and chatting can really help you to step back from the intensity, bond and relax.

Aftercare is all-too-often overlooked, but really is something you should consider if you plan on venturing into new sexual territories and trying out some of the ideas in this eBook.

DATE IDEAS

Read in a bed fort

Pick a sexy book together - something that both of you can enjoy. It can be more of a romantic read or something dirtier. Then, build a bed fort and enjoy reading together. When you get horny, just keep reading until you can't take it anymore; then try to recreate a sex scene from the book.

Play video games together

Pick a video game both of you enjoy playing. Loser of the round has to perform a sexual act on the winner. Agree on the act before the round.

Movie marathon

You can simply enjoy a movie marathon on your couch with homemade popcorn and beer. Or, you can go the extra mile and set up a theatre in your backyard. If you want to go crazy, make it a porn marathon with a lot of touching.

Play a sex game

Sex games are the perfect way to spend the evening. There are a lot of different adult games available on the market. You can check our “5 best sex games for adults” to pick something that both of you will enjoy.

Bubble bath with candles

Make a bubble bath, light up a couple of candles, add rose petals, and pour wine. Make this bath romantic and slowly touch each other all over. Finish it off with a reverse cowgirl and don't worry about the water splashing around.

Watch the sunrise and make breakfast

You can either watch the sunrise at home or you can pick a local park or lookout. Prepare a picnic basket the day before and take the food with you, or make breakfast together after the sun has risen. Then you're ready to go back to bed.

Massage night

Put a sheet on the table, light up a couple of candles, and prepare body oil. Give each other massages but avoid massaging intimate areas. Tease each other until you can't take it anymore. Then, enjoy mind-blowing orgasms.

Make a DIY project

This can be something like a photo album, dance mix, or recipe book. Pick something you'll both like. If you feel adventurous, you can even renovate a room. Talk about your memories when you do this and finish it off with romantic, gentle lovemaking.

Learn a language

Pick a foreign language and learn phrases like: “I wanna go down on you,” “make me cum,” or “fuck me harder.”

Homemade sex tape

Wear something sexy and revealing. Start by taking pictures of your partner and have them remove their clothing, piece by piece. The couch is a good place to set up a studio. Then, switch places. When you get into the model mode, you can put a timer on your phone and film yourself together.

Build a snowman

Hopefully you have some snow around you, because building a snowman together is a very fun activity. Especially when warming up after includes a hot bath or shower together - maybe even a hot chocolate and cuddling. It's the perfect recipe for a night that's both sexy and romantic.

Test drive a sports car

Go to your local car dealership and pick a crazy, expensive car that you like, but would probably never buy. Driving around in a car like that is very sexy, so try to find a private area (as private as you can) and engage in a quickie. Feeling extra sexy? Give your partner a blowjob while they drive.

Fooling around in the kitchen

Cooking together is hot, especially when you do it wearing only underwear. So, get naked and choose something fairly easy to make. That way, you can focus on fooling around in the kitchen more than the actual cooking. If your body isn't covered in food, you're doing something wrong.

Work out together

This shouldn't be your usual workout. Instead, look up acro-yoga positions and instructions on YouTube and try to do it. You'll laugh a lot, promise. Finish this off in a shower together.

Read more about acro-yoga.

Make your own sex game

Another fun activity is creating a sex game that's going to include all of your fantasies. Check out Pinterest for ideas and use your imagination to make your own sex game. Pro tip: don't show each other what acts or toys you have included for the surprise factor.

Breakfast in bed

Everyone likes to be served breakfast while they're still in bed. To make this fun and fair, you should do this twice. One partner will be a server while the other one will be served, then you can switch roles. When you serve your partner food, get under the blankets and pleasure them orally.

Picnic at park

Prepare a basket with sandwiches, fruit, and champagne. Pick a local park, grab a blanket, and have a picnic. It would be great to get another blanket so you can cover yourself. Feed each other and cuddle. Touch each other slowly and gently under the covers as foreplay, but make sure there are no kids around.

A long walk

Take a slow, long walk in a nice area. Talk about your memories together and places you would like to visit. Talk about all the dirty things you would like to do to each other. Try to find a hidden spot where you can orally pleasure each other.

Night swimming

Under perfect circumstances you'll be swimming in the sea on a beautiful beach with the moonlight on your faces. But, in more realistic circumstances, any clean water will do. This can be a lake, backyard pool, or even a local spa if you're adventurous enough. If possible, get completely naked.

Pleasure maps

Make pleasure maps of each other's bodies and see how well you know the turn on spots of your partner. Punish your partner for every spot they missed by spanking or hot-cold play.

Movies with remote controlled sex toy

Go to the movies, but make it hot by having your partner wear a remote controlled sex toy (such as PAULA - for cat lovers) while you have the remote. Make your partner cum in the middle of the movie.

Cocktails

Pick a drink that you both like or pick two different ones. Buy what you need to make it and have a cocktails night. To make this extra fun, dance for each other - maybe even twerk. Remove a piece of clothing after each cocktail and keep on dancing. Striptease is welcome.

Sexy shopping

Go to the lingerie store and buy your partner something you would like to see them wearing. Have your partner do the same. Have fun trying to hide what you bought. Then pick a sex toy together. When you get home, exchange what you bought and try it on. Then try the toy.

Bike riding

If you don't own a bike, you can rent one for a day. Get adventurous and try to find a spot for some inappropriate touching. Stay aware of your surroundings

Food crawl

Get dressed up and head out. Have apps, dinner, and dessert at three different places. Pretend this is your first date. Go to the bathroom and take your panties off. When you get back to the table, hand the panties to your partner with a smirk on your face. Try to get really sexy with each other. You can even go to the bathroom for a quickie before you leave for the next place.

Weekend getaway

Go to that place you always wanted to go, but somehow never found the time. Make it all about you two. Stay naked all day and have sex as often as possible. Bring some toys, such as a bullet vibrator, blindfolds, and/or handcuffs. Have sex in every room of the house. Spank your partner on the balcony. Then have some more sex, outside.

Combine

Try one of the ideas from each chapter of this book. You can do so by making a sex menu. Both of you take a paper and write down what you would like to try tonight. Set it as a menu: appetizer from chapter 2, entree from chapter 3, and dessert from chapter 4. Now you have two menus that you can use, or you can combine them.

Camping and stargazing

It's nice to escape the city lights for a while. So, grab a backpack and a tent and head to the woods. You don't have to spend the night out in the woods if you're not up for it - you don't even need to hike if you don't want to. It's easy to find a spot where you can just park really close to the woods. If you don't have a tent, grab a blanket. Just make sure to make s'mores and get sexy under the stars.

Play sexy versions of classic games

Pick the booze of your choice and a private corner of your house or backyard. Start with “Never have I ever” and make it dirty. Then move on to “Would you rather.” Keep going with sexy questions and engage in the act of choosing for a couple of minutes before moving on to the next question. You could also make it “Truth or dare” or strip poker.

Chocolate tasting

It’s well-known that chocolate is an aphrodisiac and everyone loves it. Going to a chocolate tasting can be a very romantic date idea, but it’s even better to try it off each other’s body. So, get a fondue set with a couple of different types of chocolate. Blindfold your partner and have them try one. You can offer chocolate on a fruit or on your body part. If they guess what type of chocolate they were trying, give them a reward - sexual, of course.

KINKY
SEX
IDEAS

Cock ring

The cock ring kills two birds with one stone; you'll be able to last longer and have a more explosive ejaculation. Plus, if the ring is vibrating, your partner will get more pleasure from it.

Teasing before oral

Tease your partner by slowly kissing, gently blowing air, and touching every inch of their body, but act like their intimate areas don't exist. You can also use a feather tickler or flogger to caress their body. When your partner is shaking from excitement, devote your attention to pleasing them orally.

Flavored lube

Cover yourself with flavored lube and have your partner watch. Do so slowly enough to give them time to get really horny. Then, guide your partner to lick it off of your body. Control the speed of licks as well.

Dirty

Pull your partner's hair during sex and whisper dirty things in their ear. You can tell them how good it feels to fuck them and how hot they make you. You can also add some spanking and move your grip from their hair to their neck.

Foot job

Start by caressing your partner's thighs and penis to build-up excitement. Then give your partner a foot job as part of the foreplay. Use lube for a smoother experience. You can also ask your partner to help you by holding your feet.

Explore tantric sex

With tantric sex orgasm is not the goal. Instead, the focus is on feeling deep connection and intimacy with your partner. To try this out, you will have a very slow sex focusing on eye contact, breathing, and touching.

How to Practice Tantric Sex

O-ring gag

Get an open mouth ring gag for your partner. Have them lie on a couch with their head hanging from the edge and use their mouth - or tell them to kneel in front of you and hold their neck as you thrust in their mouth

Sloppy blowjob

To make your blowjob sloppy, you'll need to use a lot of saliva. Do so by spitting directly on a penis or in your hands. Even though a sloppy blowjob doesn't require deep throating, it is more than welcome.

Sex slave

Become your partner's sex slave for a certain period of time. Agree on what's acceptable and a turn-on before you begin. Next time you play, swap roles.

Here are some ideas on slave training.

Silent sex

Before going to a party or gathering, give your partner Kegel balls and tell them to wear them to a party. Knowing that you two are the only people that are aware of the toy inside your partner will make for great foreplay. Continue to have silent sex in a house full of people.

Prostate massage

Prepare your partner with a lot of lube to make drilling their asshole smooth. Then, slowly start with your fingers and massage your partner's prostate until they cum.

Read more about prostate massage.

Morning bliss

Wake up before your partner and crawl under the covers. Take off your partner's underwear, making sure they don't wake up. Start pleasuring them orally so they can wake up with your tongue on their intimate area.

Fingerbang

Fingerbang your partner. Use their mouth to make your fingers wet. Not wet enough? Use their mouth again. Too wet? Make them suck your fingers. You can also hold your partner's neck or combine this with one of the bondage positions.

Twerk on it

Sit on your partner's penis in reverse cowgirl position. Now get low, twerk that ass as much as you can, and let it bounce on the dick.

Animal in you

Buy some cheap but revealing lingerie. Tease your partner by dancing for them and touching yourself. Then, have your partner rip it off of you.

Sensual massage

Grab some lube and use a lot on your partner's intimate area. Dedicate all of your attention to sensually massaging that body part.

Distance sex

Even if you live together, you can still have sex from distance. Go to a room away from your partner, take off your clothes, and start masturbating. Then call your partner and let them hear you moan. Don't let them come to you, only have phone or video sex.

Double stimulation

Use a thumb or a magic wand on your partner's clitoris during penetration. Apply different speeds and pressure with both a wand and thrusts. Watch them squirm from pleasure.

Edging

Bring yourselves to the edge of orgasm, but don't let each other cum all night. When you finally do cum, the orgasm will explode throughout your body.

Striptease

Dress slutty and wear the highest heels you have. Give your partner a lustful look as you walk into the room and keep eye contact while you strip for them. Take off every piece of clothing, but keep your heels on.

Asking a stranger

Go on a website where you can chat with random strangers. Then, have them tell you what to do in bed. If you feel extra frisky, you can also turn on a webcam and let them watch you. If you want to stay anonymous, you can wear a mask.

Pegging

Try to switch things up between you by pegging. Put on a strap on and fuck your partner like they usually fuck you. Make sure to use a lot of lube. You can also give your partner a handjob for extra stimulation.

Nipple stimulation

Have your partner's nipples constantly stimulated with adjustable nipple clamps. Hot tip - remove the nipple clamps as soon as your partner starts to climax. You can also try using clothespins as nipple clamps.

Ghost touch

Touch your partner from head to toe, only with your breath. Build up tension around their intimate areas and then go back to the beginning.

Switch places

Dress up in each other's clothes and pretend you are your partner. Act according to your role and try to get in your pants.

Mirror, mirror on the wall

Try having sex with a mirror next to the bed. This can also be done standing by a mirror. Then, watch your partner enjoying you. Make sure to watch their face as they cum.

Classy BJ

Wear bright red lipstick, get on your knees, and suck your partner's cock. Make eye contact while you do so. Feel free to dress slutty.

Don't mind the neighbors

Engage in wild and very loud sex. This time, don't try to suppress your screams and moans; instead, express your pleasure and don't mind the neighbors.

Face cream

Have your partner kneel on the floor and pleasure you orally. When you get close to orgasm, tell them to stop, open their mouth, and put out their tongue. Then cum all over their face.

Rain fuck

What's even better than kissing in the rain? Well sex, of course. Next time it rains, don't run in your house! Instead, head out for a quickie in the rain.

Don't neglect the balls

Get on your knees, but this time don't suck your partner's dick. Instead, suck your partner's balls while they masturbate. Make sure to maintain eye contact.

Titty-fuck

Play with your partner's breasts; you can even oil them. Then, simply put your penis between your partner's tits and have sex like that. You can add nipple clamps for stimulation.

Wrestling

Make some room on the floor and lay an old sheet down. Use an edible massage oil to slick your bodies and have a wrestling match. Agree on a sexy prize beforehand and reward each other after every round.

Feet master

Make your partner worship your feet. Start by ordering them to give you a good foot massage. When your feet are nicely relaxed, have them lick your feet and suck your toes.

Chastity device

Control your partner's orgasm by making them wear a chastity device. This way they can't even touch themselves without your permission. Make sure to reward them if they behave.

Recreating porn

Get comfy on a couch or bed wearing little or no clothes. Pick a porn movie and watch it together. Try to recreate a scene or even a full movie. It may take a couple of times to get all the way to the end.

Squirting

Try to make your partner squirt. To do so, you will insert your fingers about an inch or two in your partner's vagina and angle up toward the belly. Then, find the G-spot and simulate it by pressing onto it. Have your partner help you by showing and explaining the feeling. Read more on squirting.

Controlled

Have your partner wear a remote-controlled toy. You control the remote, of course. You can do so on a date, at a party, or just around the house.

Face fuck

Hold your partner's head still. Do so by holding the back of their head or by telling them to lie on a bed with their head hanging off the edge. Then, slide your cock in and out of your partner's mouth, going as deep as possible.

CNC

Try a CNC – a consensual non-consent scene, also known as rape play. To make this play enjoyable for both of you, you have to discuss the whole play in detail before starting. The most popular CNC play is burglary.

Spanking session

Put your partner over your knees. Increase their blood flow to the ass, cheeks, and genitals with a spanking paddle. You can also use a riding crop, ruler, or even a wooden spoon. Start with gentle taps and work your way up. Wearing a spanking skirt is very sexy for this type of play.

Great feast

It's time to feed your partner with some good quality organic food. Tell them to lay still and sit on their face. Or - even better - sit on a chair, spread your legs, and give your partner a snack.

Anal time

Put that lube to good use. Prep your partner with a lot of lube using your fingers. Then you can decide whether you want them to have a butt plug, dildo, or your penis inside of them.

Shower sex

Get sexy in the shower. Start by thoroughly soaping each other. Make sure you don't miss a spot, but leave the most interesting parts for last.

Rimming

Tonight, take your oral a bit further and orally pleasure your partner's asshole. You can kiss, lick, and suck. You can also insert your tongue and/or fingers.

Strip club

Visit a strip club together and get tipsy. Pay for a lap dance for your partner and watch them. Then, let your partner pay for a lap dance for you. Or you can get that dance at the same time.

Can't come in

Have sex without penetration. Instead, use your hands, feet, and mouth to make each other climax.

Frozen toy

Put one of your toys in a freezer for a couple of minutes. Ideally this would be a dildo; use it on your partner. Be careful with the toy's material because you don't want it to stick to skin, nor do you want it to be too cold. Ideal material for this type of play is glass or metal.

The voyeur

Visit a swingers' club or a sex party. Be a voyeur and watch others having sex, or let other people watch you having sex. Make sure to agree on each other's limits before you go.

Threesome imitation

You can imitate a threesome with a suction cup dildo, pocket pussy, or sex machine. The best way to do so is if your partner starts solo by using one of the toys mentioned above in a dark room. Then you come in, watch your partner, start touching and kissing them, and finally ask to join.

Watch your partner masturbate

Tell your partner to take off their clothes and position them on a couch. Add some toys next to them. Sit on a chair and make sure you have a good view of your partner. Tell your partner to touch themselves, but you navigate what they do and how they do it. Join your partner later.

Sex dungeon

There are many sex dungeons available to rent - you can even rent them for just a couple of hours. This is a great option if you want to try out a bunch of BDSM furniture and gear without having to buy it.

Mutual masturbation

Start by making out like you're back in high school, with light or even no touching. Then sit on opposite sides of a couch and watch each other masturbate. No penetration allowed, only dirty talk.

Wax play

Set up a session by covering a couch or bed with old sheets. Light up a candle and wait for the wax to form. Drip wax on your lover's body for a mind-blowing sensation. Make sure that the candle is not alight when you do so and always try wax on your hand before starting. Start dripping wax on your partner's legs and arms; slowly work your way up to more sensitive parts of their body. Get more info about wax play.

Bring food into bed

Use food as a part of a foreplay. Grab some fruits, chocolate sauce, and whipped cream. Make eating sexy by slowly putting it in between your lips and lightly sucking on it while maintaining eye contact. You can also blindfold your partner and have them lick chocolate sauce and whipped cream off of your body.

Blowjob on the go

Start by touching your partner while they're driving. Unzip their pants, take their cock out, and start sucking on it. Stop if your partner stops the car and tell them they can only have it on the road.

Erotic electrostimulation

Erotic electrostimulation is a simple, non-expensive way to add something fresh to your sex life. Use those small currents to create sensations around the genitals and nipples.

Electrostimulation can be dangerous and we urge you to read more about erotic electrostimulation before engaging in electro play and by all means do not improvise with homemade devices.

ROLE PLAY IDEAS

The Master and slave

Step into the world of BDSM and power dynamics.

Masters have ownership over their slaves and, thus, can request anything from them. Make them do house chores or please you - and if they fail, punish them or use them sexually.

However, a slave is submissive to the Master, but at the same time both Master and slave are aware of the same importance to the power dynamic. To have a Master without a slave is much like a captain without a ship (and the other way around).

So, one has to treat the slave respectfully if they wish to receive the same amount of respect.

The Spices of Lust blog can serve you well in this scenario; we have an extensive list of slave training ideas, as well as slave positions used for position training.

The mafia

I'll start off by suggesting you watch Scarface or The Godfather to get into the role and pick up the right lingo and tone.

As far as the mafia is concerned, you can be a mafia boss (don) or a hitman. Both of them are powerful and can demand a lot of things or services. This is usually by blackmail or leveraging power.

Or, thinking of Marlon Brando in The Godfather 1, you can do a favor (or save a life) and then - when the day comes - ask something in return.

The celebrity

This is your opportunity to be anyone, from a singer to your favorite actor.

Step in the shoes of any celebrity and let your fame and influence work for you. You have so much money that you can pay people to do anything you want; you can bribe people, you can hire prostitutes or strippers, you can host the craziest pool parties, or you can engage in sex with loyal fans.

As a celebrity, you meet all kinds of people: agents, make-up artists, fashion designers, and crazy fans.

Approach someone and offer or demand something naughty. Invite someone to your mansion and act inappropriately, or organize an audition and ask for something in return for the role.

Also, someone can break into your dressing room and surprise you.

This scenario can also be played in a way that a celebrity meets another celebrity.

The pimp

Your usual workday consists of meeting various new people, many of whom are or will become your workers.

The pimp can try and convince someone to work for them, or simply have sex with one of the workers. Or, if a worker wants to get out of the business, you may request a payment to be paid off through various services.

A great turn in this scenario is that one of the workers is an undercover cop - and then the dynamic is upside down.

The traveling salesman

You knock on your own door and the goal is to sell something to your partner because you're a traveling salesman.

Traveling salesmen can sell anything from cars to clothes, lingerie, or sex toys.

While in the house they can try and convince people to buy their product, watch customers try the product out, or offer a discount in exchange for "something".

As a customer, you might not have enough money, but you can always offer a service in exchange.

The doctor, patient, or nurse

This scenario gives you a couple of options.

As a doctor, you might check in on your patient, run tests, and examine your patient.

On the other hand, patients can act inappropriately towards the doctor or the nurse. Look underneath the coat, request naughty treatments, or offer some kind of pay for better treatment.

A nurse can sponge bath the patient or help them recover by using unconventional methods.

Doctors and nurses often stay working long hours, which might be a chance for something to happen between them.

The mother or father in law

Two different mothers and fathers-in-law exist - the kind you hate and the kind you find extremely sexy.

You can try to secretly seduce them and have naughty fun together - or if it's the mother or father-in-law you hate, pick a fight with them and use them sexually.

Or, a different angle is that the mother or father-in-law uses you as a sex toy.

The student and teacher

A simple role-play scenario, yet can be played in several different ways and with varying power dynamics.

What makes this scenario an all-time classic is the fact that many of us fantasize about older lovers. At the same time, we often fantasize about being an authority. However, with that being said, it doesn't mean that the student can't be a power or authority.

You can set up your home as a classroom or as a type of home class.

Students can request "other" kinds of lectures or just act inappropriately. At the same time, the teacher can punish the student for not doing homework or for misbehaving during the class. Also, the teacher can request payment in certain unconventional ways.

Aside from the suggestions mentioned in the gear guide, you can use a wooden ruler as a spanking tool - especially during the build-up. Rulers essentially don't hurt, but are a good way to start a spanking session for a naughty student.

The kidnapper

One of you kidnaps the other and either requires ransom or tries to extract information.

And if the hostage doesn't cooperate, you can try and take it by force (with consent set out in the prior discussion, of course).

This scenario is great for introducing some bondage positions and punishment techniques like spanking, flogging, or tickling.

The cowboy or cowgirl

Wild West! This is probably the best reason you've had to dress up as a cowboy or a cowgirl since you were a child.

Try to get some clothes, fake guns, and hats that fit that era. And no, you won't be needing live horses (but you can wildly ride your partner).

They used to roam and sleep throughout the wilderness, participate in gunfights, and occasionally visit brothels.

You can demand anything when you have a gun in your hand and other people don't, so use that to your advantage.

Maybe you could save a damsel from evil bandits and receive a reward for your heroic act, or catch a wanted person and blackmail them in exchange for not turning them in.

Go wild, it's the wild west!

The FBI and criminal mastermind

You're the law - but your partner is breaking the law.

Costumes and props for this scenario are easily available and will definitely enhance the experience.

As a member of law enforcement, you can strip search the outlaw, question them, and arrest or capture. You can take a different approach and punish them for their misdeeds or request some other services.

Great idea - set a scene where a burglar gets caught stealing a precious diamond.

This is also another great scenario for introducing some bondage positions and toys.

However, this dynamic is not the only one possible; you can turn it around so that the outlaw captures members of law enforcement and takes control of the situation.

For example, an undercover cop can be caught and punished.

The boss/manager/corporate CEO and secretary or employee

Bosses can demand many things from their employees because they're... well, bosses.

The "usual" requirements would be to stay and work late hours or to go on a business trip together. This gives the boss the possibility to act.

Also, the boss can give certain tasks to their employees, like offer a raise for sex - or on the other hand, punish a secretary for not doing a good job.

As an employee, you can act submissively and admit to the wrongdoings or protest if you're not happy with the terms of your employment. Good secretaries often see that the boss' wishes and needs are fulfilled. Or, they even go the extra mile to get a raise.

However, power does not need to be on the boss' side. For example, an employee can find evidence of the boss' mistake or fraud and blackmail them, requesting basically anything.

Stranger in the bar

You're going to have a casual fling with a stranger - at the bar!

Set up this session at a bar, restaurant, beach, coffee shop, or another place that you might find exciting.

To make it more real, one of you should arrive a bit earlier. For example, if you choose a bar, talk with the waiter and send your partner a drink - or casually approach and offer to buy them a drink.

Introduce yourself and let the story gradually develop. Eventually, invite your partner to your home to finish in style.

Since you are both strangers to each other, you can hit on your partner, make a proposition, be inappropriate, dance together, touch each other underneath the table, or even have sex in public.

In addition to that, if you get to the house, you can try out one or more ideas from other chapters of this book.

The firefighter

As a firefighter, you spend a lot of time with your firefighter colleagues. This creates the possibility to have a fling with one of them.

However, saving a person in distress is another possible scenario.

Close your eyes and imagine a hot, tall, extremely brave firefighter.

There's a huge fire; the firefighter jumps in and saves you. And, obviously, you're grateful and want to thank the firefighter for saving your life.

The nun and priest

Taboo roleplay scenario.

I'm sure not everybody will like the idea, but I think the same amount of people will.

If you don't mind role-playing a kinky nun and priest, we guarantee lots of fun. Nuns can be seduced by priests and vice-versa - in the end, they spend lots of time together.

Also, priests can strongarm or force nuns to have sex, or nuns can blackmail priests to have sex with them - they're fed up with celibacy and crave the vitamin D.

The girl or boy next door

A scenario from many porn movies. This is your chance to be (with) the horny, slutty neighbor.

Invite your neighbor over or casually stroll to their house to chitchat or ask for some honey.

After a short intro, get down to business.

In addition to that, you can wash a car and get all wet... or maybe you're just bored and you decide to casually seduce your neighbor.

The cheerleader

Being with a cheerleader is a common fantasy for many. The typical cheerleader is spoiled, slutty, and usually demanding. A real brat.

You can play this scenario in a way that you either fulfill all the cheerleader's needs or punish them for their behavior. Or, just role-play a classic high school fling with a cheerleader.

Do it in a car for a real high school vibe.

The schoolgirl

Similar to a few scenarios already mentioned, yet slightly different.

The schoolgirl usually wears a short skirt, (short) buttoned shirt, and a bit excessive make-up - which can later be smeared all over the face. And, of course, pigtails.

The schoolgirl can be bratty, loud during class, smoke behind the school, or not do homework.

Your partner can be a strict teacher or a fellow classmate.

The alien

Sci-fi lovers will surely enjoy this role-play scenario.

You're a visitor from another planet - a planet where everybody's sexual drive is through the roof and they're kinky as they can be.

As a visitor to Earth, you can be kind or dangerous. Step into an alien's skin and interact with humans as you wish. Mate with them - either by force or seduction. Or maybe, since your sex drive is raging, make them your sex slaves.

You can also imagine that human(s) went on a space mission and have accidentally landed on your planet.

The rock star

As a celebrity, you can use your fame, influence, and money to seduce someone.

You can also be seduced by a fan during a tour. And it can happen anywhere – bar, backstage, stage, club, your home, studio, or maybe during an interview.

In case your seducing skills aren't the best, you can always use money.

And, of course, wear leather if you have it.

The French maid

Act seductively while you clean and (of course) show a bit too much skin - just enough to spark the imagination. Maybe offer extra services in exchange for a raise.

As the maid's boss, you are authoritative and can basically demand anything. Even better; explain all the naughty job requirements while hiring the maid.

Props for this scenario are widely available - just check the gear guide.

Two spies

During a raging war between the western and eastern worlds, you find yourself in a hotel in Berlin.

You're about to confront the opposite side's spy and threaten that you'll expose them.

However, you were not aware of the fact that your secret got leaked too; now you're endangered in the same way.

Will your spy efforts be lost in vain, or will you manage to find a common language?

The politician or judge

Picture this: it's election year and somebody who found controversial information about you is now blackmailing you. Power dynamics are turned upside down; you aren't used to this.

The person is asking you to do various favors for them or just to sexually please them.

On the other hand, politicians can use power and influence to pressure someone into doing exactly what they want.

Judges can be played in a similar way.

The librarian

Librarians are quiet, shy, and sexy when equipped with a smile and seductive look coming through the glasses.

To the outside world, they're just regular librarians... but when the right person comes along, the librarian goes wild.

Perfect role-play scenario for someone who's smart and sexy.

Office toy

You just got hired as the office coordinator!

A new office job in a modern, evolving startup company - sounds very exciting.

However, things turn out to be a little different than they seemed.

Office coordinator is the code word for “office sex toy.” You’re actually sent to please higher-ranking employees of the company and prospective customers.

It’s your first day at the job and the CEO calls you into his office to see if you’re fit for the position.

Do you go or do you quit your job?

The pay is good and you need that money.

(Fake) Photographer

You're desperate because you got fired from your last job. Money is low and the future doesn't look bright.

Somehow, after a long thinking process, you decide to take a shot as a photographer. The fact that you already own a Nikon was a huge part of the decision.

Step-by-step, and after probably a thousand messages on social media, you manage to find your first model - beautiful and young.

However, the real struggle begins when they take their clothes off. Should you make a move or keep it professional?

Sealing the deal

You managed to book a tour of the house you've been eyeing for some time now. Oh, happiness!

The house itself was exceeding all expectations you had - even the real estate agent is better looking than in the brochure.

But, of course, there has to be something!

They did casually mention that there's another couple interested in the house and, judging by their words, this couple were 110% certain to buy the property.

You decide to go all in (in one of the bedrooms) and seal the deal. Will your agent go for it?

Bounty hunter

One day you wake up as a bounty hunter; today you have a pretty dangerous task.

You need to catch a killer and bring them to face justice. While reading the file on hand, you notice something written in a very small font.

“Approach with caution; target armed and dangerous. If caught, there’s a possibility of extensive ass injuries due to heavy impact and the target’s ass play fetish. It is known that the target wields a Desert Eagle gun, collection of butt plugs, and a whole range of spanking tools.”

Who’s going to win the encounter? Is the target going to be apprehended, or your ass violated?

An experiment gone wrong

Both of you are elite scientists in the hidden maximum security facility. During a routine test, two different particles come close and the xxx-pheromone accidentally gets created.

The xxx-pheromone causes people to become insatiably horny - and not only that, but everyone in close vicinity to the exposed subject is easily seduced.

The government gets notified and, in fear of the xxx-pheromone getting out, seals the lab where super horny scientists are left to do further research.

The lab got converted to one big sex room and all the medical equipment got put aside.

The questions arises, is further research even possible when the only thing scientists are doing is fucking?

Elven masseuse or masseur

Set in the Elven world, this Elven masseuse/masseur is providing a special “hot and cold release message”.

Like many other Elves, this one also has a keen intellect, superhuman senses, and natural magical talents. Exactly what makes this massage unique.

You’re about to have the experience of your lifetime. The Elf combines ice cube and warming lubricant, along with giving oral in between, thus the, “hot and cold release message.”

Enjoy!

The orgasm gladiators

Set in the distant future, this scenario reminds us of Roman gladiators.

Those convicts who are fit and capable are transferred into the facilities near the arena, where they live alongside other convicts and gladiators.

The arena is used for 1-on-1 battles; the gladiators win by fucking each other to orgasm. Whoever wins advances and has a chance to win their freedom. Losers go back to the beginning, hoping that next time they won't be fucked.

You can arrange your own fights with lots of lube - or maybe you could be a gladiator trainer.

The painter

You're the young, aspiring artist - hungry for success.

At the same time, many young, also success-hungry models visit your room and pose as your models. For you they were all the same - until this one, this one is different.

With them, it's like an energy field walked in. Immediately naked, listening, and obeying your every instruction.

Not only that, but the connection was also real, especially after countless hours of conversation. All of a sudden, life through your eyes changed; you have found your muse.

But, will your muse only pose for your paintings, or will there be something more between you two?

Angel and demon

You're an angel who is sent to Earth to save the soul of a certain human. Their soul has been possessed by a demon who is dangerous, yet deceptively playful.

What you didn't expect is that the human body which the demon has possessed is exceptionally attractive.

For the first time, you're having a hard time distinguishing right from wrong and good from the bad. Will you fall to the demon's alluring personality hidden in a hot body?

Will the angel become the demon's new plaything, or will the good overcome the evil and free this poor human soul?

Prince or princess and their personal assistant

You're the royal family's assistant and you hate your job. The job itself isn't bad; your duties are to take care of the schedule and other tiny duties Royalty has to do.

However, the reason you hate your job is the actual Prince/Princess, who is young, rich, and spoiled. They're used to getting whatever they want and they're impossible to bear.

Especially when aroused - their secret fetish is anal sex. And, as their personal PA, you must see that their wishes are always fully fulfilled.

Can you endure?

The assassination gone bad

A young royal is traveling away from their Kingdom with only a maid escort. You're given the task to assassinate the royal or be executed yourself.

However, the mission intel didn't tell you that this young royal is actually a powerful sorcerer, with yet unseen dark magic capabilities.

The assassination attempt goes badly and you end up shackled in their carriage. The royal, equipped with dark magic but surprisingly merciful, offers you a second chance for life.

You, left with no other option, accept. The only requirement for your life is that, from now on, you are the new maid for the royal, the new bodyguard, and the new sex pet.

Magic potion

This scenario is set in a fantasy kingdom where you are a well-known potion maker.

However, you end up getting captured by a local barbarian tribe during one of your quests for secret potion ingredients.

Just before they were about to cook you in a huge pot, a God / Goddess appears to save you.

The being that appeared is a lesser God / Goddess and their duty is to recruit new followers for their deity.

This God / Goddess, who usually leans toward submissive type, demands you to brew a potion that will make them completely submissive.

You somehow put the wrong ratio of ingredients into the potion and the God / Goddess ends up being experienced dominant - and at the same time, uncontrollably horny.

What will you do now, since it's impossible to escape a God / Goddess? Are you going to submit?

Captured warrior

A wealthy and influential Roman purchases a captured warrior to be used as their own personal pleasure slave.

Will the warrior manage to win their freedom by exceptionally pleasuring their Master?

Or will the warrior use their fighting skills to turn the power around and capture the Roman?

The prostitute or stripper

The perfect chance to take the role play experience outside the house (but not necessary).

Rent a hotel room or convert your room to one.

One of you arrives first and waits for the other. When they arrive, wait for them to change and then discuss the details. For the sake of authenticity, pay upfront.

The hero and evil villain

You are the brilliant scientist living in a parallel universe.

Since your childhood, you have been fascinated with Spiderman comics. As a result of that, for the last five years you have been committed to finding a way to recreate the gadget that shoots the web. Eventually, you have succeeded in your intentions.

However, your goal was to enhance your bondage skills - not save the world from bad guys.

But at the time, you didn't know that the world would be attacked by a vicious and extremely horny villain that was attacking everyone and sexually using them, because sexual release was their high and their food.

After a series of clashes, you manage to catch the villain and you now have them all tied up with your incredibly powerful net.

What's the biggest punishment for this villain? Teasing and pleasing them, bringing them to the verge of orgasm only to walk away. Repeat that as many times as you think they deserve.

The millionaire

When you check your bank account, there's all the money in the world.

Are you going to host the wildest parties ever? Hire a luxury prostitute? Bribe someone? Just remember, everybody has a price - and you can pay any price.

Or maybe you're the millionaire Dom with BDSM dungeon in your mansion?

The knight

Back to fairy tales. You are a well-known knight; strong, powerful, handsome, and charming.

There are two ways to play this one. In the first scenario, you're coming home from battle. Your partner is waiting at home, hoping to relax and please you, thanking you for your bravery.

In the second scenario, the knight is a savior. Your bravery and incredible fighting skills save someone in distress. Now they want to repay you for the favor - or you demand something in return.

Living with a cyborg

This scenario is set in the far, far future. Humankind invented cyborgs - machines that look and talk very sophisticatedly, exactly like us. Cyborgs obey and listen to their human owners.

You're fed up with your single, lonely life and decide to buy yourself a cyborg to keep you company and help you around the house. After all, if you spend less time doing chores, you'll have more time to meet someone - a real human.

However, things don't go as expected. The cyborg you get is immensely hot and very service-oriented. After a while, the cyborg starts doing more than chores - it starts doing you and you start doing it.

Little by little, the cyborg becomes your own sex pet. How will you use it?

The vampire

The perfect chance to get in the shoes of Blade, Dracula, or Selene from Underworld.

Recreate a scenario from any of the movies or create your own.

Vampires are dangerous and seductive in their nature, so use that to your favor. Lure a “normal” person into your dark world or try and tame a werewolf. Set up your living room as your den; protect yourself from the daylight and begin.

Vampire world sounds like a place to use restraints or include in light bondage elements.

The pirate

Yarr!

You're a pirate and you're living a life full of adventures, traveling across the sea, battling other pirates, and stealing treasure.

As a pirate captain, you have the whole crew under you. Be a demanding captain, or promise them gold in exchange for something naughty.

In the case of taking over another ship, make other crew members your (sex) prisoners.

Prince or Princess and the harem

You've been invited to be a part of the young prince or princess' harem. For a nymphomaniac like you, that's a great wish and honor. However, there's one troubling fact.

The young Prince / Princess is known for their tickling fetish, crazy sex skills, and insatiable desire.

The troubling fact is the extent of their tickling fetish. Apparently, some of the members of the harem even ran away after long tickling sessions where they were completely restrained.

However, this is a once in the lifetime opportunity and you decide to go.

The first thing you see is the luxurious bed with an under bed restraint system already set up, feather tickler, mouth gag, and a leather flogger.

How will this night end?

Little Red Riding Hood

Little Red Riding Hood is walking to their grandmother's house but is stopped by a tall, scary, but sexy werewolf.

But little did the werewolf know that Little Red Riding Hood is knees-deep in the lifestyle as a prominent Dominant figure.

Before the werewolf even knew what had happened, they found themselves on a leash by the Little Red Riding Hood's feet, obeying their kinkiest wishes.

The flight attendant

The perfect scenario for someone looking for a quickie or a one night stand. Imagine you're in a different city in a hotel room.

Or, even better, join the mile high club in the plane's (your home) bathroom... or meet in a bar after a flight.

Who's your partner? A colleague, plane captain, or a tourist?

Simple yet interesting.

Getting dressed as a flight attendant shouldn't be a problem - check the gear guide.

Magic school

You're the young and shy magician's apprentice. The magician that has been schooling you for the past few years is a powerful one - an elder, as they call him.

However, even with your best intentions, you lack magical talent. Not even reading half of the magic library has helped and, as time goes by, you are becoming anxious and afraid that you're going to be kicked out of the school.

Should you offer your body to the magician? You're starting to think that if you physically connect with the magician, maybe some of the magic capabilities will transfer to you. Is your mind going crazy?

Leave the school or go all in?

Hansel and Gretel

After Hansel and Gretel escaped the evil witch, their life gradually returned to normal... well, to the new normal.

Gretel soon discovered that the traumatic experience with the evil witch had changed her. Most of the time she felt normal. However, she started getting urges - urges deep inside of her.

The time Gretel spent as the witch's servant opened her eyes. Service was in her; she was born to serve.

Since there was nobody else close to them in the woods, Gretel became Hansel's servant, often wearing nothing but an apron, collar, and a long leash.

At first, Hansel was reluctant to use his servant, but prolonged solitude changed that.

During the rare moments when Gretel questioned the newly created relationship with Hansel, she would usually end up completely tied to the chair and thoroughly spanked.

Because, as Hansel says, she was a bad girl for having those thoughts - and bad girls need to be spanked.

Lost phone

You find a phone on the street. Nobody was even remotely close, so you decide to pick it up and see if you get ahold of the owner once back at home.

The phone wasn't locked, which was surprising. You scroll through contacts to find the owner and you eventually succeed.

Two short rings and a pleasant but firm voice answers; after a short chat you set a place to meet so you can give the phone back. Secretly, you hoped you'd get some kind of finder's fee. After all, it was an expensive phone.

Your curiosity took you to the phone's photo gallery and BAM. This, you did not expect to see. A full, complete, total 50 Shades of Grey red room with a St. Andrews cross, floggers, whips, cuffs, and loads of other things you've never seen, but are immediately interested in. And not to mention the person in the photos. Very attractive.

Maybe a visit to the dungeon could be your finder's fee?

1950's

This scenario is set in the 1950's.

You met a neighbor at one of the neighborhood cocktail parties. Your acquaintance slowly grows into more than friendship.

Since both of you are married, your meetings are secret - when the situation allows. Gradually, your feelings toward each other grow more and more.

Your spouse is suddenly sent to war in North Korea and now you're all alone. You can't stand to be separated from the sexy neighbor you recently met.

You invite the neighbor to your house one day and prepare the fondue and the chocolate for them to eat off you. But that's not all - you want to elope with them.

No eloping, no chocolate licking.

The pleasure island slave

One day - a regular day, on your way to work - something terrible happens.

While walking to your job, a black van pulls up, abruptly breaking near the sidewalk. Three men jump out to throw you in the van.

After a short wrestle, two of them get a hold of you and the third one puts a napkin over your face, probably covered in chloroform. You pass out almost immediately.

The next thing you see is a wooden deck and a breathtaking sandy beach. However, something is wrong. You're cuffed, and both legs and arms and gagged, so screaming is not only useless - it isn't even possible.

There, on the side of the deck, is your kidnapper. He proceeds by explaining to you that you're on one small island in Croatia, brought here to be a sex toy, and that there's absolutely no point in escaping or refusing.

Will you surrender and commit to being the best sex slave, or will you try and run?

Yoga instructor

You decide that it's time to improve your yoga skills and take up private yoga lessons.

As it turns out, the yoga instructor is very sexy and their way of showing yoga moves is highly sensual... and maybe even inappropriate.

Their hand goes all over your body as they adjust you from position to position. The downward-facing dog has never looked or felt better.

Will this yoga lesson end up in something more than just exercise?

The queen and king

The Wicked Queen is completely fed up with her King (or vice versa). He's completely uninterested and their sex life is nonexistent.

After a while, she snaps and decides to have fun with one of the servants. After all, they can't say no.

Usually in the afternoon, servants would be called to her chambers where they would get naked and collared by the Queen.

Often, the Queen would think on how to use them while they were by her foot, licking her feet and drinking from a bowl.

This would be followed by a long and rough oral session; the Queen was a very dominant person.

If the Queen noticed them getting aroused during the oral session, she would gag and flog them while occasionally dripping hot wax on their body.

Depending on the Queen's mood, the servant would either be sent away or she would have sex with them.

That was Queen's schedule every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday.

The dominatrix or femme fatale

Step into female dom shoes and make your partner submit and obey.

The power dynamic is obvious in this role-play scenario. Domination can range from gentle to more extreme.

Some gentle domination ideas are being the big spoon during the cuddling, being in charge during oral sex, and giving your partner compliments after sex. Or, switch to slightly more extreme domination techniques.

For example: make your partner do house chores or make them your sex slave. Restrain and tease them, make them please you however you wish, and if they don't satisfy - punish them.

Like playing mind games? Here's something to try.

Tell your partner that you'll stop playing with them and that you'll give them exactly what they want. Start playing with them and change your mind just before the climax.

You can play it another way around, too.

Another idea is to make your partner beg for release and then tease them about it.

The boy-toy

Quite self-explanatory.

You're going to be used by someone rich. Dress and do as you're told and you'll earn your money or gifts.

The pool cleaner

You're immensely wealthy and you're relaxing by the pool.

A sexy, shirtless pool cleaner comes by to do their thing. Suddenly, a thought crosses your mind - you need someone to rub your sunscreen in. And the pool cleaner is close... Do you see where I'm aiming?

The babysitter

You have a hot, young babysitter at home and you decide that you'd like to have fun with them. Offer a raise in exchange for something naughty – or, as the babysitter, use your wealthy boss... just to blackmail them later. You can also ask for a raise by offering something extra.

The producer

A producer is often the step between an artist and success.

Whether you decide to take advantage of someone in exchange for a push or genuinely help them and get your reward... it's totally up to you.

Also, you can play this one as a casual fling between a producer and a star of your choice.

Cinderella

This is definitely not the Cinderella you know.

In this version, Cinderella's fairy godmother appears and magically transforms her reality into a dream come true.

When Cinderella looked at herself in the mirror, she was left speechless. Her long legs in high heels looked so innocent and therefore so alluring. As she turned to the side, she saw the perfect arch, exposing her short dress and ass to the maximum. And not to mention the rack between her boobs - a real dark hole.

She attended the ball and enchanted the young prince. Still, the spell wore off at midnight and Cinderella was back with her enraged stepmother and stepsisters.

However, during the ball, Cinderella lost an item from her purse. She lost a 10-inch suction cup dildo - and the prince was the one to find it.

When the search for the dildo's owner was finished and the prince found Cinderella, in thanks for returning the dildo, Cinderella orally pleased the prince while riding the dildo attached to the floor.

She married the prince and became his forever slut. They lived happily in his castle, occasionally indulging in a threesome with the dildo that brought them together.

BONDAGE POSITIONS

Yoga class

Instruct your partner to lie on their back with their hands above their head. Tie their hands together and to a bedpost using a rope. Then, tie each leg and pull them up, securing them to a bedpost as well. Make sure that their legs are spread wide. Now you can orally please or penetrate your partner.

Bend over for me

A spreader bar is the perfect gear for this position because it will allow you to tie your partner's wrists to their ankles in a standing position, but you can also use bondage tape or rope. It's hard to be in this position for a long time, so make sure to support your partner by letting them lean on something like a wall. Now your partner is bent over for you to spank them with a spanking paddle.

Closet service

Seat your partner in a closet on a chair. Cover their eyes using a beanie, scarf, or blindfold. Then, tie their hands to the closet rod. You can do so with rope or bondage tape. Pleasure your partner with your mouth and hands.

Let me stretch your back

Use a collar and leash to dominate your partner. When you have them in your control, slowly lead them around the room. They can be walking or crawling. Feel free to spank them with a riding crop. When you reach a wall, have them lean forward against the wall and spread their legs. Now you can enjoy them from behind.

Door hanger

Tie your partner's hands with a rope and place the other side of the rope on a door hanger. You can use a blindfold and gag as well. Make sure to leave enough rope for your partner to comfortably bend their back. You can bend your partner forward and spank them with a flogger (or just your hands) before enjoying them from behind.

Beginner hogtie

This position will almost completely immobilize your partner. You can do so with hogtie restraints or a spreader bar. Tell your partner to lie on their stomach and put their hands behind their back. Spread their legs and put cuffs on your partners ankles. Connect a bar or hogtie restraints. Then, put cuffs on their wrists and connect them to hogtie restraints or a spreader bar. Do so slowly and carefully and make sure your partner feels comfortable.

Bathtub riding

Run a bubble bath and tie your partner's hands above their head. You can also use the rope to tie their hands to the shower head. Turn away from them and ride them, reverse cowgirl style. Your partner can only look at your ass splashing water around, no matter how hard they want to grab you.

Clear entrance

Have your partner lay on their back. Lift up their legs over their head. Now, tie their legs and arms together, preferably with their arms on the inside of their legs. You can do so on the floor, bed, or even on the table. The perfect gear for this scene are hog tie restraints, but you can also use a rope or bondage tape. Hold your partner's thighs as you slowly start penetrating them. Use your arms to gently rock them with each thrust.

Triple dipper

In this position thigh, wrist, and ankle restraints are used to maximally limit your partner's movement. Using a restraint set will be the easiest for this position, but it's also doable with bondage tape. Start by tying the ankles to the thighs and then add the wrists. This position is very good for oral. You can also turn your partner around and use them from behind.

Ducked

In this position, your partner will be extremely exposed. Start by having your partner kneel on the floor or bed. Then restrain their ankles firmly together with rope or bondage tape. Have them bend forward and bring their hands behind their knees. Find the exact position that makes them feel comfortable and then restrain their wrists. This position is perfect for anal and a great toy would be a butt plug.

Spring roll

For this position, you will need bondage tape to be placed on your partner's thighs. Do not tie the tape too tightly because you want your partner to be able to place their feet above their head. The most practical place for this position is the floor. Another great position for anal sex.

Wrists to ankles

Direct your partner to kneel. This can be done on the bed or on the floor. Tie each of your partner's wrists to their ankle on the same side. Now you can enjoy them. You can give your partner a hand job, play with their anus, and spank them. If your partner is not flexible enough or doesn't feel good in this position, you can tie only their hands and try to place their body in a position as close to this one as possible.

Homemade spanking bench

To imitate a spanking bench at home, you will need a chair or ottoman. Have your partner kneel on the floor and lean forward, resting on a chair. Now bind each limb to the closest chair leg. You can do so using rope or bondage tape. As the name suggests, this position is perfect for spanking, so grab a spanking paddle, flogger, or whip and spank that ass.

The bottle opener

Have your partner lie on the bed. Connect their ankles together; in this position, each foot is placed on the opposite thigh. Then connect their arms by tying their forearms together. You can do so with handcuffs or bondage tape.

Thigh restraints

In this position you will use thigh restraints or bondage tape. Sit on a bed and invite your partner to come close to you, facing you. Use your gear to restrain your partner's wrists to their thighs on both sides of their body.

Spanking rodeo

Tell your partner to lay flat on a bed and put their arms next to their body. Use a rope to secure their arms to their body. After you have your partner nice and secure, ride them like you've never ridden before. Use a spanking paddle, flogger, or simply your hand for a couple of whacks on their ass and thighs.

Hand tied doggy

Guide your partner to kneel and tie their hands to the bedpost. This can also be done on the floor. On the floor, you can use a table or couch leg to secure your partner's hands. Enter your partner from behind and hold on to them as you thrust.

Chair teaser

Ask your partner to sit on a chair. Then, tie their hands to a chair while also lifting their breasts. The most practical way to do so is with a rope or bondage tape, but you can also use handcuffs to restrain the hands and some fabric or a bra to tighten and lift the breasts. This position is great for sensation play. To make this a sensation play, you will want to deprive them of their senses. You can do so with a blindfold and headphones. Then, pinch their nipples, caress them with a feather tickler, drape flogger strands on their body, smack their thighs and breasts with a riding crop, run a Wartenberg wheel on their body, and / or pull their hair.

Butterfly

Lean your partner over a big pillow, making their ass exposed. Tie their hands behind their back. Or tie each hand behind their back to each ankle on the same sides of their body. Make sure your partner's body is secure by holding their arms or hips as you thrust. If you feel adventurous, you can also try this position on the table or chair, but make sure to hold on to your partner.

Little froggy

Complete restraint while maximizing exposure. In this position, you will connect your partner's ankles to their thighs. You will also tie their arms behind their back, going under the breasts once to lift and expose them. Do so with a rope or bondage tape. Make sure that your partner can lean on something, like a couch. Possible scene for this position is forced orgasm, as your partner is completely restrained. To do so you will need to stimulate your partner, forcing them to orgasm, then continuing to do so for another orgasm and another and another.

Tied to the bed frame

In this position you will only tie your partner's hands. Do so with handcuffs, rope, bondage tape, or basically anything you can find to use for this purpose. Secure their hands by tying them to a bedpost. You can also use a blindfold or scarf to limit their vision. Position their legs as it feels most convenient for penetration. You can also hold their legs to deepen the penetration.

Slave's reward

Tie your partner's hands to a hook, curtain rod, or door hanger, then blindfold and gag them. This position is great for controlling your partner's orgasm. Caress their thighs, blow air on their genitals, and use your hands and mouth to give pleasure. Feeling naughty? When your partner is close to an orgasm, stop. Tell them that they'll cum tomorrow. You can also give your slave a reward by offering yourself from behind as you control the thrusts and let your partner enjoy you completely.

Bound to the doorknob

Use handcuffs to restrain your partner's hands behind their back. Tell your partner to kneel in front of the doors, facing away. Then use a rope to secure handcuffs to a doorknob. Proceed to face fuck your partner, holding their head. You can also place a suction cup dildo on the doors or floor.

Yeehaw

This position is done while sitting and can be done on the bed or floor. Gag your partner's mouth and lead them to sit on your lap, facing away from you. Restrain their arms behind their back. You can support your upper body weight with one hand and use the other hand to playfully pull your partner's hair or arms. This way, you can control the speed and thrusts of riding.

Let me see them bounce

Tie or handcuff your partner's hands behind their back. Now, help position your partner on top of yourself, facing towards you. Use your thighs to support your partner's back. Ask your partner- or command them - to bounce on top of you using their pelvis and knees. Feel free to put a collar on your partner.

Exposed

Have your partner lay on their back. Lift up their legs over their head. Now tie their wrists and ankles together. You can do so on the floor, on the bed, or even on the table. Let your partner feel exposed for a minute or two and then use an ice cube to gently tease them on the inside of their thighs. You can also add a warmed spoon for hot and cold play. Then, turn your back to your partner and hold on to them as you slowly start bouncing on their cock.

Completely restrained

In this position you will completely restrain your partner – it's most comfortable on the bed. First tie their arms behind their back, then their ankles to the thighs. Preferably do so with a rope or bondage tape. You will be able to watch your partner squirm as you orally pleasure them. You will also have complete control when entering from behind.

Arm gag

For this position, your partner doesn't have to be flexible, but will have to give you control. Sit them down at the edge of a bed, couch, or even a chair. Instruct them to lift their arms and then connect their arms with a rope. Do so by going over their mouth with the rope to gag them as well. You will be able to watch your partner squirm while you give them oral pleasure, as they will want to grab your hair.

On the edge

Position your partner on the edge of a bed or couch with their legs either hanging off the bed or kneeling in front of the bed. Put your partner's hands behind their back and tie them together firmly. Now you can use tied hands to pull them towards you as you penetrate from behind. Feel free to pull on their hair as well.

Plugged

Have your partner kneel in front of a couch and tie their hands behind their back. Bend them over so their upper body is lying on a couch. Slowly prepare them for a butt plug using lube. Then, place yourself in front of your partner while comfortably sitting on a couch. Place yourself by your partner's mouth and have them orally satisfy you while the butt plug is inside of them. Use your hands to grab your partner's hair and control the motion.

Obedient

Restrain your partner's hands behind their back. Put a collar around their neck, if you have it. You can also use your hand for a light grip. Now push your partner's head down and force them to kneel so they can pleasure you orally.

Tickle time

Tie your partner's hands behind their back. This can be done casually on any surface you prefer. Use a feather tickler, pinwheel, riding crop, or flogger to gently tickle them all over their body. Spend some extra time around the upper thighs and bottom. When your partner is teased to their limit, engage in a sideways sex position.

Sideway entrance

In this position you will only restrain one side of your partner's body. Instruct your partner to lay on their stomach and lift their leg as you use handcuffs to connect wrist to ankle. This position is perfect for teasing before you enter your partner from the behind.

Dinner is served

In this position you will tie your partner to the kitchen table where they will serve as your dinner. You will tie their hands to one side of the table and their legs to the other side. Do so with a rope or bondage tape. For restraining the legs, you can also use a spreader bar. You can pick whether you want your partner on their back or on their stomach. Make sure that their legs are as spread as you like. Now sit on a chair, come close to your plate, and eat eagerly.

Spread up high

Have your partner lie down on their back. You can choose to tie your partner's legs firmly together, or spread wide. Use bondage tape to tie their legs together or a spreader bar to fixate them wide. When the legs are secured, position yourself sideways for penetration.

Stretched like a star

Restrain your partner's hands and feet on opposite sides. You can do so on a bed using a bed frame and legs. Your partner should be stretched wide, both hands and feet. You can choose whether you want your partner to lie on their stomach or on their back. Now gag your partner. This position is great for teasing. You can use a feather tickler, flogger, or just your hands and tongue. After your partner can't take it anymore, continue with oral sex or penetration.

I'm gonna sit on your face

Tie your partner's hands and feet to the bedpost, while they are on their back. If you can't use your bed, try an under bed restraint system. Their feet can be spread wide or pulled closer. Kneel above your partner and have them orally satisfy you. You can do so facing towards or away from them.

Torture by tickling

To torture your partner by tickling, you need them to be tightly secured. This position is perfect because their wrists are tied to their ankles, making it very hard to resist. Simply have your partner lying on the bed and secure their wrists to their ankles on both sides. You can do so with cuffs or bondage tape. To torture your partner, start with raking your nails all over their body. You can also tease them with your breath, feather tickler, or flogger. Feel free to use a mouth gag and nipple clippers.

Lap ride

Tie your partner to the chair. Spread their legs and secure them to the front chair legs. Then, tie their hands behind their back. Show your partner some sexy dance moves. The suggestion for this pose is hot and cold play. To do this, make one cold and one hot drink. Now sip on the cold drink, lick your partner all over, then sip on the hot drink and lick them all over again. Another way to do hot and cold play is to prepare an ice cube and warmed spoon (make sure to try the warmth on your hand before using it on your partner) and use them on your partner by exchanging hot and cold sensations all over their body.
